

The Marketing Performance Manager will be responsible for managing the marketing performance team, providing campaign specific, general performance and market intelligence. You will lead the creation and deliver the marketing audit performance review, leading measurement and reporting of sales and marketing. You will own the mar ...

read full article