

NW-Barrowford, Our client a dynamic and forward moving manufacturing company is looking to recruit a highly motivated and driven Quality Manager. Reporting to the Production Director, duties will include effective running of the department together with monitoring and improving staff relations, implementation of a purpose fit quality system, strategic planning, budgets, working within internal and external depa

read full article