

The Company My client based in North Yorkshire are a significant Financial Services organisation boasting a broad portfolio of consumer and corporate lending products. As part of the on-going development of the finance team the need has arisen to recruit a high calibre part qualified accountant. The Role Reporting to the Divisional Management Accountant you will provide accurate and timely management information assisting senior managers in the planning control and forecasting of financial p

read full article